321 drama is seen. People who come through as invalid, found to have been evul, mght act something like this. "Rosemarys Baby", 1968, certainly the 321 riddle mystical at structure.

As such describe the environment. What's happening. When you do you see others around you in a shared basic understanding, versus lost in complex rhetorical analyses with potentially no basis in truth, of what you see around you. High minded, is it grounded in reality? You think what? The idea to things. Things, that there are have been the others.

Were those actors asked to act like the mentally retarded way they appear, seem to try to act out? No, its a scene from a horror film and in no way about mental retardation. The actors understand what is expressed of in the film.

"Rosemary's baby", 1968, additional comments: Two sides MICRO around connected people thought to have "3 on 21st", I see a significant part of the film pointing to this. You'd not describe it in the artist's craft but it came from their intelliqent mind and they express this idea. Key scene.

the ANAGRAM, Roman Castevet is Steven Marcato, a witch from "All The Witches". Consider OF A SECRET KNOWING, KNOWING, but that Roman Castevet is a witch what have you got him for but then that as Rosemary describes "they're plotting against me". What does it mean but BOO! SCARY. Knowledge has long been the idea of an evil, and Rosemary is becoming that way.

Significance is this. That Rosemary finds the answer. What has she got but something is so. Its not her imagination. Correct, is like that, but have the right answer to stay safe. If you've all the answers, then they better be the right ones.

One side secretive is essential. When they quarrel people appear as with "down's syndrome", of the supposed 3 alleles on the 21st chromosome at the root of problem. Two sides of the great ON and OFF RED and GREEN. Activity as would be someone with downs syndrome not quite with us. It isn't quite like that, when its those we follow actually. The 2 sides, result in activity way away as it would be.

Note in the film, Rosemary's growing not agreeing/ getting along with Roman. What is it over but questions of faith. Note his explanation of his faith as he describes, as he says to Rosemary not to worry about the Pope with all the hypocrisy around. He explains his faith beliefs. Not so in unison, but over what? Over a story of witches on another halloween level. But is it not over Rosemary onto secrets, and ultimately over that secrecy.

So two sides MICRO, one a secretive control suggested somehow (Rosemary). But what did she find out about but that they're witches. But what did it ever mean but Boo! scary witch. Questioning is over faith implication. Knowledge and secretive are bad news when its Christianity.

of the movies i've spoken of, how many were R? Hmm, Titanic?, no. Dances With Wolves?, no, almost a G. Gone With the wind?, no. Apollo 13?, no. 8 Mile, yes, an R, please consider the importance of "the right to work". Da Vinci Code, should be a PG. Rosemary's Baby is a true R movie. Probably Da Vinci Code is an R because of violence, but they should use less violence. Maybe its a PG.

Rythm in songs where life is dear and you can hear it in the music. The lullaby theme in Rosemary's Baby, "Can We Still Be Friends", Todd Rundgren, Mm Mm Mm Mm, by "Crash Test Dummies " of Canada. Take a listen, and you will hear, 321 and its significance. 3 on the 21st, think that is really so? Today in $/$ those with the "Downs Syndrome" are best to facilitate communication. Cold War "bipolar" mystical.

Connected over responsible recall in Apollo 13, after crash, boom, bang scene. And Sir Isaac Newton flew the spaceship in. When there "will be an electrical failure". Navigational realities, like at the road island, where you might be safe on a triangle? And its often the "off to the left". Crafted intelligently, major highways that must be near the sea. Where you wouldn't want them, in SE Massachusetts.

A riddle is in what happens during Rosemary's pregnancy. She consumes the foods from Minnie Castevet, that make her fall and faint. As if Minnie had evilly drugged her. To perceive the devil? Biblical destiny waits "till its time". To connect over $ affirmative in normalcy. The search for normalcy. We do more or less or reject all the time. something very much in us that we know to do.

today, you want to hand the work effort reward here for the well being of people. People ready to surrender that something isn't working and another answer is coming to be able to be seen. An avoidance this way is a long story of the Earth, of what is anti-survival. The macro having been a certain way for a long time.

Still so apart of our lives, "Rosemary's Baby", 1968, but why? Driving through Wayland a bit ago, there goes (Rosemary).

Faith practice today because we can come onto the idea to things around. Held with any given church, then be an understanding of the times. That we not lose touch as people with this. Till, biblical destiny when THE WORD might return. As verses are considered, importance means coming onto the idea to the bible story. What is trying to be said and what it means for us today. World religions follow Christianity due to the prophecy, I have heard.

We wonder what is it that happens during Rosemary's pregnancy. He will GROW UP TO JOIN ALL THEM WITCHES. What are they but connected. Connected people, like there are others with a problem of a sort. Connected stops primitively and people are like that. That and us, waiting for dollar destiny. If it were different than that and people started to connect and find life. They are likely to forget the important dollar destiny goal.

I would say look to this scene for answers.

The screenshot shows a browser window with several tabs open: 'Screenplay Structure Analysis', 'Watch Rosemary's Baby (1968)', 'Watch Rosemary's Baby Online', and 'Amazon.com. Spend less. Smile'. The address bar shows the URL 'https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Myw0t1lBXHU'. The YouTube player is titled 'ROSEMARY'S BABY' and shows a scene with a man and a woman. Below the video, the title is 'Screenplay Structure Analysis of ROSEMARY'S BABY' by the channel 'Criticat', which has 260 subscribers. The video has 481 likes, 23K views, and was posted 4 years ago. To the right of the video, there is a 'Watch on YouTube' section for the movie 'Rosemary's Baby' (Horror, 1968, 27 min), with a 'Watch' button and a 'Buy' button. Below that, there is a 'From Criticat' section with a video thumbnail for 'ROSEMARY'S BABY'.

Recall, "he has his father's eyes, hail Satan". And what it could mean, "all them witches". In a coven, what are they but connected people. We follow.
